Course Instructor: ATF Retired Resident Agent in Charge Scott Perala

Scott Perala is a retired ATF Special Agent with more than twenty-nine years of experience, retiring in 2018 as the Resident Agent in Charge of the ATF Charleston, SC Field Office. Scott spent the majority of his federal law enforcement career working undercover investigations involving firearms and narcotics violations that targeted violent criminals and street gangs. Scott also served as a member ATF's Special Response Team and received specialized tactical training for high-risk tactical operations. During his career, Scott participated in, planned and lead hundreds of enforcement and covert operations. Scott has received multiple awards and national recognition for his successful undercover work and has provided training for over a thousand law enforcement officers throughout the United States in safely conducting undercover investigations. After retiring from ATF Scott became a law enforcement and use of force instructor at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC) in Glynco, GA, where he has provided over 3,000 hours of instruction to newly hired federal agents from as many as sixty government agencies in a multitude of investigative techniques.
